

POLICE BLAME SERVANT FOR BIG JEWEL ROBBERY

Unsuccessful Search Made for Girl Supposed to Have Stolen $7500 Worth Of Jewelry Saturday Night.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 18.—The police yesterday scoured the city without result, in search of Helen Reese, the servant girl, suspected of having robbed the residence of Joseph Metzler, a wealthy real estate man, of jewelry valued at $7500.

The girl had been left alone in the house while the family went out. Returning from the theater at 11:30 o'clock Mrs. Metzler found her jewel cases scattered about the floor and all her jewelry missing.

The maid, it was found, had hurriedly left between 7 and 9:30 o'clock. The police believe Miss Reese to be the "servant-girl burglar," who made several successful depredations in homes of wealthy employers in the east during the past year, culminating in a $10,000 robbery in Washington, D. C., a few months ago.

CONSTRUCTING BIG BRIDGE AT SAN PEDRO HARBOR

SOUTHERN PACIFIC IS BUILDING
THE LARGEST BRIDGE OF ITS KIND IN WORLD.

SAN PEDRO, July 18.—Work on one of the largest single span up-lift bridges ever to be constructed has been started by the Southern Pacific Railroad company in San Pedro harbor, California. The full length of the bridge is 187 feet. The bridge will carry a double track and will be operated by electric power, capable of lifting the ponderous mass of steel in fifty seconds, affording a clear channel of 185 feet for the passage of boat traffic.

The new bridge is what is known as the Strauss trunnion type, differing from the Bascule bridge of the Salt Lake railroad, also at San Pedro, in that the latter is lifted on a rocker, while the Southern Pacific bridge will be lifted on a tall pin or hinge. It is also to be double-tracked. A latch, operated by a motor will hold the bridge in place when it is down. This new bridge will replace the present Southern Pacific and Pacific Electric

In the last forty-eight hours Miss Schmidt has been awake eleven hours. Physicians said her condition is improving and that she probably will be in normal condition within a week.

CUTTING SCRAPE WAS AVERTED LAST EVENING

An old prospector named "Bill" Pierce is lodged in the city bastille to await the action of the justice court. Last evening, near the corner of Main and Main street, Pierce caused quite a commotion by drawing a knife and chasing a man named Dannah, but the latter made a lively sprint and got away.

Pierce asserts that Dannah owes him some money on claims, and it looked for a few minutes as if he was going to take it out of his hide, but the officers took him in hand before any damage was done. Judge Atkinson is in Duckwater, where he will hold an inquest over the remains of B. C. Jenney, who was killed by an Indian, news of which was received yesterday.

MARK TWAIN LEFT MONEY TO DAUGHTER

NEW YORK, July 18.—Mark Twain left actual property worth $471,156. This does not include a trunkful of manuscripts, the value of which is not specified in the appraisal. A relic of the dead author's many unfortunate business ventures is a schedule of shares in several corporations noted as "no value."

MARRIAGE LICENSE AS A DARE

YOUNG COUPLE STARTLE THEIR FRIENDS BY PROCURING THE DOCUMENT.

In the archives of the clerk's office reposes a record of a marriage license that was issued about the first of the month. The gentleman, whose name appears on the document, resided here but a short time and held a position which brought him in contact with a large number of people, and if we should mention his name it would be familiar to many.

The young lady, however, is one of the younger set of Tonopah, and has many friends, being quite prominent in the social life of the town.

It appears that the license was issued as "a dare," but it caused no end of gossip.

MEXICANS MAY ORDER ALL CHINESE EXCLUDED

An Indirect Result of the Massacre of a Number of Celestials at Torreon
During the Recent War.

MEXICO CITY, July 18.—An indirect result of the massacre of Chinese at Torreon in the revolution may be the exclusion from Mexico of Celestials. Because of a scarcity of labor for the mines and haciendas, Mexico has encouraged the importation of Chinese, but exactly those arguments—economic and racial—which led to their exclusion by the United States, are now being freely discussed here. It is not improbable that at the next session of congress an exclusion bill will be presented.

That Mexico's economic revolution should be inaugurated so soon after the termination of the revolt led by Francisco I. Madero, was no surprise to those who have watched the rapid development of the national spirit of progress. Neither Madero nor De La Barra has displayed any pessimism because of the many strikes.

There is an element which professes to see in these rising signs of anarchy, but the more conservative express satisfaction. They say the country requires a new standard

A COMMUNICATION.

Editor of the Bonanza.

The most definitely organized gathering met last evening in the depot waiting-room. Not with an accident, but with a deluge edition of purpose and meaning beyond the compass of original intent.

The Misses Grundy entertained the Knitting Society. This in itself would not be of note, had the usual routine of "broken-hearted" loneliness been the theme.

After the customary greetings and roll-call, with no one reported absent, Miss Arabella Grundy, as hostess, stated that there would be a "hellofollie" knitting but much "panning" done, adding that those present might be "dry," but that she had a few "humid" remarks to make about men and political purity. Thus the building and repair of "ye" hose ceased. Arabella had the floor and the guests her attention.

"Girls," she said, "men are clouds, a popular addition of cussedness, and yet the only grounds for divorce."

"I have studied them for the last 38 years. I loved one, but he 'hooked' one over on me by marrying that funny-looking Miss Potts. (Hisses.)

"Men are irresponsible, also are they devoid of the chivalry and tenderness of that period in knightly history.

"Witness this age of a false pride, selfish ambition, of much discomfort and perhaps suffering at the expense of oversight and real negligence.

"This condition is not mystery; men in public life forsake the smaller things because they are as pebbles in the path of a lofty pedestal. "I always contended that two or three flowers in a sick-room were worth several wreaths on a tombstone. (Tears.)

"Human nature appears to be at a premium even in Tonopah. (Cries of 'Yes!')

"More recently the matter of a utility was brought to public attention. The sentiment was largely of the elective order, and this need was to be effected, in spite of a few dissenting business men, and a high-priced corporation. Carrying the issue to the county commissioners, it was consigned to the wastebasket; that body wanting to be consistent because they had both the habit and the reputation.

"I speak of the 'drinking fountain.' Still, I may be harsh on the men. I'm getting a bit old, and I wonder if I have not said much that I did not mean. Surely the children will have this fountain. The money can be raised by popular subscription, and the water company will solve the rate for usage satisfactorily.

of wages. In a majority of cases the wage earners have been successful and throughout the country their influence has been felt. The government has in many cases voluntarily raised the wages of those employed on public works.

Ten years ago, 25 cents, gold, a day was considered a fair wage for a common day laborer. Gradually this was increased to 35 and 40 cents, and even now it will not be necessary to pay more than 50 or 60 cents a day. The wages paid for skilled laborers are in proportion.

Mexico's most notorious slum district is likely to disappear. Colonia De La Bolas has had from earliest times a most unsavory reputation. It has been the residence of thieves and murderers and its dirty winding streets and dilapidated buildings have long been a blemish on the capital. The department of government has announced that the work of straightening the streets, improving the sewage system and beautifying the district generally will be commenced at once.

MADERO TO EFFECT DISARMAMENT SOON

PUEBLA, Mex., July 18.—Professing surprise at the many Maderistas he finds yet bearing arms, and realizing the danger of maintaining an undisciplined army in time of peace, Francisco I. Madero has determined upon a policy of immediate disarmament. He said the work of mustering out the revolutionary forces will be started at once and will be prosecuted vigorously until Mexico has but one army.

PROSPECTOR IS DEAD AT SALT CREEK

MINING MAN KNOWN IN EVERY WESTERN CAMP FOUND IN WATERS OF STREAM.

REDDING, Cal., July 18.—The body of Jack Conant, a prospector whose life tragedy is known in almost every mining camp and town in the west, was found on Salt creek, near Shasta, late yesterday.

Over twenty years ago Conant located the Uncle Sam gold mine in Shasta county and sold it for $560,000. He spent this amount at the rate of $120,000 per year, and ever since has wandered about poverty stricken, but hopeful.

"Let us adjourn with forgiveness and hope.

"I'll even bless Miss Potts if the children of Tonopah get their 'drinking fountain.'"

Thus the meeting became a very pleasant memory; Miss Arabella Grundy a heroine.
